

FREE RAIN GARDEN
FOR NESHANIC
WATERSHED RESIDENTS!

ARE YOU interested in receiving a free landscaped garden that helps the environment and adds beauty to your home?

North Jersey RC&D has five residential rain gardens in progress near the Walnut Brook, Route 523, Route 12, and Liberty Village. Don't miss your chance, sign up today!

Contact Blaire Langston on Mondays and Tuesdays at blangston@northjerseyrcd.org.

Or give us a call 908-439-2518!

NJRC&D is a nonprofit organization working to protect New Jersey's natural resources. Project funding was provided by the NJDEP Bureau of Environmental Analysis, Restoration and Standards 319h grant awarded to North Jersey RC&D.

Enter your address into GIS map to see if you are within the watershed boundary:
<http://rutgers.maps.arcgis.com/home/item.html?id=fdc1aed07a364ab1b147b7fadcb4bf5b>

Let us know you're interested at water.rutgers.edu

Check out our website: www.northjerseyrcd.org